SNAP SHOTS

AT HOME NEWS

Last winter when I thought I'd freeze, I put the heat upon my feet. To catch the grub and kill and burn. And now I spray and kill and burn. The pesky caterpillars.

They feed upon the Paris green. The soap-suds and the kerosene. And then to my surprise. They feed on the leaves of the fruit. Before my very eyes.

I find them black and green and white. Just eating everything in sight. But still I hope they'll be gone. Before they rob me of the fruit. That makes my custard pie.

W. D. Storrs, 1215 Fillmore street, has been granted an $800 building permit by the fire marshal.

Thomas J. Laughlin was today sworn in as special officer for Garfield park for the coming summer.

H. C. Clarkson, 205 West Sixth avenue, has been granted a building permit by the fire marshal.

Topeka's pest house is without an occupant. The last two cases of smallpox were released today by city health officials.

Judith A. W. Dana has granted a divorce to C. E. Elder and Mrs. Arney Elder. Elder has been married three times and Mrs. Elder twice.

The city health department reports 1,846 loads of garbage collected in their clean up campaign. There are yet a few loads to collect before the work will be entirely finished.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Auburn Avenue Baptist church will hold an all day meeting in the basement of the church at the corner of Lindenwood and Duane streets, Thursday, May 19.

The registration office is now located on the ground floor of the city building in the room formerly occupied by the city health department. If you have moved it is necessary that you register if you would vote at the coming or the November election.

A committee from the Commercial club has asked Commissioner Tandy to reauthorize Kansas avenue between Third and Fourth streets before Merchants' week, early in June.

The commissioner assured the committee he would give the matter his attention.

A telephone call caused the fire department to make a run late Wednesday afternoon to 317 West Sixteenth street, where a small fire, caused by an overheated water heater in the cellar, had started a fire in the building owned by Mrs. Maude Glynn and occupied by C. H. Crabbe.

John K. Wylie, chairman of the Progressive committee, has issued a call for a Progressive mass meeting to be held in the assembly room of the National Hotel Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The purpose is to elect sixteen delegates and sixteen alternates to the state convention to be held in Topeka next Tuesday.

Any objection to the assessment of property must be lodged with the county board of equalization before five o'clock the afternoon of May 25. The board is now in session and has been since Monday morning. It will remain in session up to and including May 25. The board is now in session and has been since Monday morning.
